Half a Dozen Transactions in William and Frankfort Streets Have Been Reported Since the Subway in the Former Thoroughfare Was Planned

The sale yesterday of another parcel in the territory just below Brooklyn Bridge called attention again to the realty movement which seems to be developing there as a consequence of the proposal of the Rapid Transit Commission to run a new which changed ownership was 162 William street, near Beekman. It was struck down at auction on Thursday to the plaintiff in a foreclosure suit, at $34,445. Yesterday it was resold at private contract to a realty

The deal has been preceded recently by half a dozen transactions in William and Frankfort streets. The property in the rear of the World Building was bought up not long ago by Joseph Pulitzer, who innot long ago by Joseph Pulitzer, who intends to extend his building over the entire block. The opposite northeast corner of Frankfort and William streets, was purchased last Tuesday by John V. and H. V. D. Black, the lithographers, as a site for a twelve story building, and on the same day the neighboring premises at Nos. 35 and 37 Frankfort street were transferred by one group of speculators to another. According to the Rapid Transit Commission's present plan, a subway station is to be located at William and Frankfort streets.

Mortgage ' Fraudulently Released

"This is a case of exceedingly great hardship and we have diligently, but in vain, sought some tenable ground upon which the appellants could be relieved from loss," are the words of the Court of Appeals in the case of a purchase from P., where it afterwards turned out that a mortgage had been fraudulently released. The purchaser sought relief in the courts, taking his case to the Court of Appeals, but the courts decided against him and he lost his property.

If this company had insured the title It would have conducted, at its own cost, the litigation involved. It would, if defeated, have made good the loss to the insured.

ABBEDWOMAN WITH UMBRELLA.

McKay, Who Was Pounded by a Crowd, Says He Must Have Been Drunk.

Bert Johnson, the treasurer of a Wiliamsburg theatre, who lives at 313 South Fourth street, accompanied by his wife, Susan, and John J. Lasker, a relative by marriage, attended a Manhattan theatre on Thursday night, and afterward dined It was after 3 o'clock yesterday morning when they left a ferryboat at the foot of Broadway, Williamsburg. There was no car in sight, and while the three were in front of a hotel at Kent avenue and Broadway Johnson and Lasker left Mrs. Johnson alone for a moment. James McKay, a mechanic, 27 years old, of 150 Guernsey street, approached Mrs. Johnson, and, after muttering something, jabbed the sharp point of an umbrella into her right eye. As she staggered with a scream, sharp point of an umbrella into her right eye. As she staggered with a scream, Johnson rushed to her aid, while Lasker started in pursuit of McKay, who was hurrying off. A crowd of men joined Lasker, and when he caught the man all began to choke, punch and kick him.

Policeman Knocker of the Bedford avenue station made his way through the crowd and saved McKay from being killed. McKay had been badly wounded, and he could scarcely stand. Mrs. Johnson proved to be seriously injured, and a hurry call for an ambulance was sent to the Eastern District Hospital. Dr. Shanks had Mrs. Johnson taken to her home in a coach, and several doctors who were called in to treat her were of the opinion she might lose the sight of her eye.

After McKay's injuries were attended to he was taken to the Bedord avenue police station, where he was held on the charge of assault. McKay charged Lasker with assault, but the latter was released on bail. When McKay was arraigned later in the Lee avenue police court, Johnson informed Magistrate Furlong that his wife was in a critical condition.

McKay said he had no recollection of his conduct, and added that he must have been drunk when he assailed Mrs. Johnson. He was held in $1,000 bail for a hearing Tuesday.

PET BLACK AND TAN REPRIEVED.

PET BLACK AND TAN REPRIEVED. Hudson County S. P. C. A. President Pleads for Life of Mrs. Barti's Dog.

Police Justice Frank J. Higgins of the First Criminal Court, Jersey City, who pronounced a death sentence on Mrs. Mary Barti's black and tan dog for biting Patrick J. Flanagan, a letter carrier, on Thursday, granted a stay of execution yesterday at the request of President George M. McCarthy of the Hudson County District S. P. C. A., and his brother, James, who is counsel for the association. The S. P. C. A. officers, who had announced their intention of putting the dog to death in a gas chamber, hurriedly called off all arrangements for the execution and gave the dog a comfortable kennel at the "Shelter, a comfortable kennel at the Saletter, pending final disposition of the case.

The McCarthys became interested in the dog's fate as a result of Mrs. Barti's tearful appeal to Justice Higgins not to let the S. P. C. A. kill her pet, which, she said, did but very little damage to the letter carrier's les.

did but very little damage to the letter carrier's leg.

Lawyer McCarthy told the Court there was a grave doubt as to whether the dog was running at large or was on Mrs. Barti's premises when it tackled Flanagan. He said he didn't desire the impression to go abroad that the society wished to interfere between the law and the dog's life. He appeared on behalf of Mrs. Barti, who was very fond of the dog and who couldn't afford to retain a lawyer to make a fight for her pet's life.

Justice Higgins said he didn't want to do an injustice to man or dog. He will hear anything that may be said in favor of or against the condemned dog on Tuesday next, and will then decide whether to re-consider his sentence.

DIES OF HORSE'S BITE. Vicious Beast Bit Fireman Barry in Shoulder

Ten Days Age. James Barry, 40 years old, who lived in Broadway, Astoria, and who was the driver of the tender of fire engine 163 in Steinway, died in St. John's Hospital yesterday morning of blood poison.

About a week ago Barry was bitten in About a week ago Barry was bitten in the shoulder by a horse which Chief, Clark drives to and from fires. The horse only nipped him on the shoulder, and nothing was thought about it by Barry. On Monday, however, blood poison set in, and Barry was removed to the hospital.

The same horse that bit Barry kicked Stephen Sullivan, a fireman, about four months ago and broke his leg. Sullivan is still on the sick list.
